A note from the Directors...

As we approach the end of 2025, we want to thank you for your continued support of The Spring. The wonderful Spring staff, volunteers and trustees, patrons and members, and all of the fantastic audiences, participants and partners - make The Spring such a special place. And this year wouldn't have been possible without every single one of you.

As we look ahead to 2026, we are excited for a year filled with creativity, joy and connection. Celebrating local people and stories, exploring new connections and discovering possibilities we don't even know about yet.

Together, through creativity and culture, we know we can keep discovering new ideas, learn new skills and find new futures.

What will 2026 have in store for you? Whether it's trying something new, delving deeper into a project or making time to meet with friends, we look forward to seeing you at The Spring over the coming months.

1984

by Box Tale Soup

Tuesday 24th and Wednesday 25th February, 8pm
Tickets: £15

Winston Smith, insignificant cog in the Party's vast machine, dreams of freedom, but is he the only one? Big Brother is watching and dreams can be deadly when rebellion begins with a thought.

Known for their ingenuity and slick storytelling, Box Tale Soup's unique puppetry becomes a striking metaphor for Orwell's chilling vision of power and control.

From the creators of Casting the Runes and The Picture of Dorian Gray.

Lucy Porter: Let Yourself Go!

Saturday 21st February, 5pm & 8pm
Tickets: £24

Festival favourite Lucy Porter returns to The Spring with a brand-new show all about the joy of letting yourself go – wrinkles, babycham and all!

Warm, witty and wonderfully relatable, Lucy celebrates midlife liberation and the power of reinvention.

"Impeccably punchlined anecdotes... genuinely delightful." The Telegraph

Kathryn Williams

with support from Matt Deighton

Thursday 26th February, 7:30pm
Tickets: £18

Mercury-nominated singer-songwriter Kathryn Williams brings her acclaimed career to the stage, performing songs from her upcoming album Mystery Park.

Support comes from Matt Deighton, a folk virtuoso praised for his solo work and collaborations, described as "a modest guitar legend" and a spiritual descendant of Nick Drake. Together, they promise an intimate, soulful, and masterful evening of music.

Russell Hicks: This Time It's Personal

Saturday 28th February, 8pm
Tickets: £20

American comic Russell Hicks returns with a brand-new show following a whirlwind year of film roles (including The Running Man), viral fame from his hit "Dear Diary" series, and life in the UK.

He's back, funnier than ever – and this time, it's personal.

Matinee: Saturday 14th February, 2:30pm

Tickets: £14, £12 concessions, £10 for under 25s

Buy one get one half price for opening show

Kate likes her men tall, dark and smouldering. She has a fatal attraction to bad men. Then she meets Steve... Steve is a feminist. Can Kate overcome her love of lipstick, cupcakes and Heathcliff? Can Steve forgo the ethical confetti and learn to be a little more ravishing in bed? Can the two of them reinvent romance for the 21st century?

How To Date A Feminist is a hilarious new spin on the Hollywood rom-com, brought to you by the director of recent Bench shows of Dear Jack, Dear Louise, and Stepping Out, it promises to be an enjoyable evening.

Calendar Girls

by Bench Theatre

Thursday 23rd April - Saturday 2nd May, 7:30pm

Matinee: Saturday 25th April & Saturday

2nd May, 1:30pm.

Tickets: £14, £13 concessions, £10 for under 25s

Buy one get one half price for opening show

Based on the true story that became a hit film and West End sensation, Calendar Girls is a heart-warming comedy full of laughter, love and Yorkshire grit. When Annie's husband dies of leukaemia, her friend Chris dreams up a bold plan to raise money in his memory: a charity calendar with a difference - featuring the ladies of the local Women's Institute, in the nude!

As the calendar's success takes them far beyond their village hall, the women discover the power of friendship, courage, and community spirit. Calendar Girls is a glorious celebration of ordinary women doing something truly extraordinary.

What The Butler Saw

by HumDrum Theatre

Wednesday 18th - Saturday 21st March, 7:30pm

Matinee: Saturday 21st March, 2:30pm

Tickets: £15

Joe Orton's What The Butler Saw is a razor-sharp, wildly funny farce of chaos, desire, and deception. When young Geraldine Butler arrives at Dr Prentice's clinic for a job interview, she's met with more than she bargained for - a lecherous doctor, his equally wayward wife, a blackmailing page-boy, and a disastrously timed government inspection.

Intelligent, scandalous, and outrageously witty, this classic Orton comedy exposes human folly with biting brilliance. From the award-winning HumDrum team behind Entertaining Mr Sloane.

Royal Opera: La Traviata

Wednesday 14th January, 6:45pm

At a lavish Paris party, courtesan Violetta meets Alfredo, and love transforms her world. She abandons luxury for passion, but tragedy soon follows. Verdi's La Traviata, directed by Richard Eyre and starring Ermonela Jaho, blends sumptuous grandeur with intimate emotion in one of opera's most beloved masterpieces.

Royal Ballet: Giselle

Tuesday 3rd March, 7:15pm

Peasant girl Giselle falls for Albrecht, unaware he's a nobleman betrothed to another. Betrayed, she dies of heartbreak and joins the vengeful Wilis, spirits who condemn men to dance to their deaths. Peter Wright's classic Royal Ballet production evokes love, betrayal, and redemption in Adam's hauntingly beautiful Giselle.

Royal Opera: Siegfried

Tuesday 31st March, 5:15pm

Unaware of his true heritage, a young hero sets out on a quest that leads to a shattered sword, a deadly dragon, and a cursed ring. The third chapter in Wagner's Ring cycle, following Kosky's acclaimed Das Rheingold (2023) and Die Walküre (2025), Siegfried blazes with mythic grandeur and magic.

Royal Opera: The Magic Flute

Tuesday 21st April, 1:30pm

When Princess Pamina is captured, Prince Tamino and his companion Papageno set out to rescue her - only to discover that love and truth are far from simple. Guided by a magic flute, they face trials of wisdom and heart in David McVicar's enchanting production of Mozart's timeless The Magic Flute.

Turner And Constable

Tuesday 10th March, 1:30pm & 7:30pm

Celebrate the 250th birthdays of J.M.W. Turner and John Constable in this captivating new documentary, exploring their rivalry, intertwined lives, and artistic legacies. With exclusive access to Tate Britain's groundbreaking exhibition, the film showcases Turner's fiery, dreamlike landscapes alongside Constable's pastoral realism. Enjoy intimate views of sketchbooks, personal items, and expert insights, and witness the clash of 'fire and water' that defined two of Britain's greatest painters. A unique opportunity to experience their art and stories together, on the big screen.

Hamlet

Thursday 22nd January, 7pm

Olivier Award-winner Hiran Abeysekera (Life of Pi) is Hamlet in this fearless, contemporary take on Shakespeare's famous tragedy.

Trapped between duty and doubt, surrounded by power and privilege, young Prince Hamlet dares to ask the ultimate question – you know the one. National Theatre Deputy Artistic Director, Robert Hastie (Standing at the Sky's Edge, Operation Mincemeat) directs this sharp, stylish and darkly funny reimagining.

Love Never Dies

Tuesday 27th January, 1:30pm & 7:30pm

Andrew Lloyd Webber's Love Never Dies continues the story of The Phantom of the Opera in a breathtaking production filmed in 2012. With a 21-piece orchestra, a cast of 36 led by Ben Lewis and Anna O'Byrne, over 300 costumes, and 5,000 lights, this cinematic musical spectacle is a feast for the eyes and ears.

Radiohead x Nosferatu: A Symphony Of Horror

Tuesday 17th February, 1:30pm & 7:30pm

Silents Synced pairs classic silent films with powerful rock soundtracks for a bold big-screen experience. This edition reimagines F.W. Murnau's Nosferatu (1922) – the haunting, unauthorized take on Dracula – set to Radiohead's Kid A (2000) and Amnesiac (2001). A fusion of gothic cinema and modern sound.

Bat Out Of Hell: The Musical

Tuesday 14th April, 1:30pm & 7:30pm

The cast of the West End production will bring Jim Steinman and Meat Loaf's iconic anthems to life.

This heart-pounding experience, with a powerhouse eight-piece live band on stage, delivers a new production with sprawling multi-level platforms to transport you from Raven's bedroom to the underground world of the Lost in a visual feast that pushes the boundaries of live theatre.

When Vincent Met John

by The Everyman Theatre

Wednesday 4th March, 8pm

Tickets: £15

What if Vincent van Gogh and John Lennon – two of history's greatest artists – had met? This play imagines that encounter at the exact moment of crisis for both men. In 1886, Vincent struggles with poverty, illness, and artistic rejection in Antwerp, while in 1974, John battles fame, estrangement, and addiction in Los Angeles. Exploring love, death, art, and legacy, the story fuses their worlds to reveal how two troubled geniuses confronted change, creation, and the choices that defined their lives.

All For Your Delight

by Farnham Maltings

Thursday 5th March, 7:30pm

Tickets: £15

The famous Brightcoats are on tour. In between gigs at the nation's best holiday resorts, they're welcoming audiences into community spaces around the country.

Behind the sequins and spotlights, something deeper is unfolding. When an unexpected character emerges forcing them to confront what it means to live a life dedicated to performance.

The Noise Next Door: Comedy, Improvised

Saturday 7th March, 7:30pm

Tickets: £18

Funny stuff, made up on the spot. No gimmicks, no tricks – just the quickest, wittiest improvisers in the UK putting on a show to make you laugh like nobody's business.

The formula is simple – 1) You suggest ANYTHING. 2) The Noise Next Door turn your suggestion into a miniature comedy masterpiece. 3) Laughter. 4) Repeat.

The Noise Next Door are award-winning, twelve-time sell-out legends of the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and have blown audiences away on BBC One, ITV1, Comedy Central, and in comedy clubs and theatres all over the world. Don't miss your chance to see them live.

Fixing

by Matt Miller and Peader Kirk

Wednesday 25th March, 8pm

Tickets: £15

Drag mechanic Natalie Spanner would like to teach you all about holistic car care - how to look after our cars, but also ourselves - and invite you to get down and dirty under the bonnet. She's also here to help Matt navigate childhood memories of the time just after Matt's parents divorced, when everything seemed like an adventure. The time Matt and their dad were closest.

These two worlds collide in a show which is both outrageous and touching, laugh-out-loud and heartfelt, interactive and caring. A show about family breakups, learning car maintenance and choosing the right shade of lipstick to do it in.

Thursday 2nd April, 7:30pm

Tickets: £20

Namaste Motherfckers* is Cally Beaton's sharp, unapologetic take on life in midlife. Blending comedy, storytelling, and extracts from her stereotype-busting book, Cally shares her own story of radical reinvention — from boardrooms to the stage, inspired by a chance encounter with Joan Rivers.

Funny, fearless, and celebratory, the show champions women reclaiming visibility. Complete with a Q&A and meet-and-greet (Jeff the wonder dog might even make an appearance), it's a riotous, heartfelt tribute to reinvention and female power.

80s HiFi

Friday 3rd April, 7:30pm

Tickets: £23.50 standing, £25 seated

The UK's number one 80s experience - relive the best music and biggest hits of the decade, performed live by a full five-piece band. Imagine stepping into a time capsule back to the dance halls of the 1980s, with the sounds of Duran Duran, Tears for Fears, Frankie Goes to Hollywood, Kate Bush, and many more.

Forever Elton And Joel

Saturday 4th April, 7:30pm

Tickets: £25

The spectacular Forever Elton and Joel delivers a dazzling celebration of two of the greatest musical icons of our time - Billy Joel and Elton John. Led by the multi award-winning composer and musical director Phil Mountford, this tribute band brings the magic of two of the greatest piano men to life with electrifying performances.

True Strays

Thursday 9th April, 8pm

Tickets: £16

True Strays are a Bristol-based duo blending alt-Americana, blues rock, and neo-psychedelia into heartland anthems filled with soul and grit. Lifelong friends and DIY warriors, they've supported Lukas Nelson, rocked stages from Glastonbury to Joe Bonamassa's cruise, and returned with their boldest, most personal album yet: Never Ending Sunset. For fans of big hooks, real stories, and music that hits home.

Twice nominated as Emerging Act of the Year at the UK Blues Awards, the duo are fast becoming one of the UK's most exciting alt-roots acts

Meet Fred

by Hijinx

Wednesday 8th April, 8pm

Tickets: £16

Ten years, 20+ countries, and countless laughs later, Meet Fred is back!

This darkly funny, internationally acclaimed satire follows Fred, a puppet fighting for his independence as his Puppetry Living Allowance is under threat. A hilariously subversive take on bureaucracy, disability rights, and what it means to be human.

"Sharp, funny and vastly entertaining."

Lyn Gardner, for The Guardian

Looking For Me Friend: The Music Of Victoria Wood

by The Cabaret Geek

Friday 10th April, 7:30pm

Tickets: £22.50

Celebrate the life and legacy of Victoria Wood in this joyous, feel-good evening. Paulus The Cabaret Geek (BBC1's All Together Now) and pianist Michael Roulston (Fascinating Aida) bring nostalgia, laughter, and Victoria's best-loved songs to the stage.

Welcomed by her family, friends, and colleagues, the show is a heartfelt tribute for both longtime devotees and newcomers alike. Expect wit, warmth, and wordplay wizardry in a night of pure fun - stilletos optional, oven gloves encouraged!

"Paulus's homage to Victoria Wood

Fire, Rain And American Pie

Saturday 11th April, 7:30pm

Tickets: £22

A heartwarming musical tribute to the iconic U.S. singer-songwriters of the late '60s and early '70s. This show features timeless hits from James Taylor, Carole King, Simon & Garfunkel, Joni Mitchell, Don McLean, Carly Simon, and more, performed by an excellent five-piece band.

Classics like You've Got a Friend, American Pie, Big Yellow Taxi, California Dreaming, and Woodstock come alive alongside a nostalgic, intimate narrative with period images. Sometimes poignant, sometimes amusing, this show is always a delightful celebration of a golden era of music.

Blubber

by The Hale

Wednesday 15th April, 8pm

Tickets: £15

In the beginning, Katie and Body were best friends. In the beginning, Katie and Body were infinite with possibilities...

Katie's taken up synchronised swimming. She's buoyant and beautiful, but it's a lot harder than they thought. When the promise of campy fun and liberation fails to materialise, Katie feels further from her body than ever before.

Join Katie and Body on their quest traversing forgiveness, beauty and whales as they ask: what does care look like for a fat body?

Club Mistero

by SilverStage Theatre Company

Thursday 16th April, 7:30pm

Tickets: £16, £12 students

Step into the dangerous but dazzling world of Club Mistero, set in 1920s New York, a thrilling murder mystery that combines glitz, glam, and suspense. With sharp dialogue, unexpected twists, and a dynamic cast, Club Mistero is a gripping, immersive theatre experience that will keep you guessing until the end.

The Croupiers

Friday 17th April, 7:30pm

Tickets: £19

Fresh from their adventures around the UK, Brighton-based The Croupiers return to Havant for an evening filled to the brim with Classic, Rare and Anthemic Northern Soul, performed live by a female-fronted 10 piece powerhouse!

The Croupiers continue on their mission to spread the gospel of all things Northern Soul directly to you. Expect tracks you won't have heard played by a live band before, and that you won't hear anywhere else.

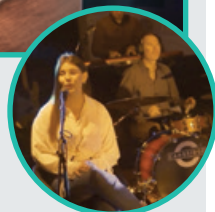

A Country Music Songbook

Saturday 18th April, 7:30pm

Tickets: £26

Brought to life by a talented band of seasoned players, and singers, A Country Music Songbook promises an unforgettable evening filled with intimate moments, engaging narratives, and emotionally charged performances.

Expect a one-of-a-kind experience as the show weaves together a unique collection of songs, from The Carter Family to Billy Joel, Buck Owens to John Hiatt and Elvis to Asleep at The Wheel, with carefully chosen illustrations to bring the songs to life.

Threads of Freedom

On display from 24th November

As part of Our Freedom: Here and Now, The Spring has joined a nationwide celebration marking 80 years since the end of the Second World War. Working with local artists Helen Sill and Tanya Woods, we've explored what freedom means to people in Havant today.

Through drawings, words, and stitches, our community has shared their reflections on freedom. These contributions have been brought together into one participatory artwork that captures the voices and creativity of the local community.

Explore the evolving exhibition from 24th November 2025, then celebrate the final artwork from 7th January 2026.
