A note from the Directors...

What a summer season we have in the making!

Alongside the many fantastic events on offer, it is a delight to spotlight and celebrate the array of brilliant local stories and makers coming through this season. From showcasing local artists in our annual Open Exhibition and brand new Summer Makers Market, to new workshops, a return of the Railways exhibition, to Associate Community Theatre Companies taking to the stage.

This summer we are also excited to announce our brand new Summer Sessions, a fantastic line-up of music events from local musicians to nationally renowned artists, tributes to new music. Hopefully there is something for everyone.

We are looking forward to seeing in the warmer evenings with you all, and delving into local stories together and trying something new this season.

We hope to see you there!

Sherlock Holmes: The Death and Life

by David Stuart Davies

Thursday 7th May, 7:30pm

Tickets: £15

"A fireworks display of acting virtuosity"
Theatre Weekly

What if Sherlock Holmes refused to die? Tired of his famously arrogant creation, Arthur Conan Doyle invents Moriarty to rid himself of the great detective—but his plan spirals into unexpected and surreal consequences. This witty, fast-paced one-man play blends murder, mystery, and the occult as fiction and reality collide.

Starring Nigel Miles-Thomas, written by David Stuart Davies, adapted for the stage and directed by Gareth Armstrong, with original music by Simon Slater, this critically acclaimed production is a thrilling theatrical encounter not to be missed.

Rogue Minogue

Friday 8th May, 7:30pm

Tickets: £18

Step into the world of pop royalty with Rogue Minogue, a dazzling tribute to Kylie performed by the extraordinary Cheryl Hadley.

From Kylie's early hits to her latest chart-toppers, this show delivers flawless vocals, electrifying stage presence, and all the sparkle you'd expect from the Princess of Pop. A nostalgic, high-energy celebration of Kylie's career that promises a night of unforgettable music and fun.

An award winning performer

Flamenco Express

Saturday 9th May, 7:30pm

Tickets: £20

Flamenco is an art as universal as the blues, opera and ballet combined. For over thirty years, Flamenco Express has upheld its traditions by bringing together exceptional artists and giving them total freedom of expression.

The show returns with a new cargo of raw, heart-wrenching flamenco with 'sizzling soloist' La Joaquina, guitar virtuoso Chris Clavo, the massive vocal presence of Antonio El Pola, and tonight, another trademark Flamenco Express British Star Premiere in the shape of award-winning choreographer and dancer Kuky Santiago.

Budapest Café Orchestra

Thursday 14th May, 7:30pm
Tickets: £21

Budapest Café Orchestra returns with their dazzling gypsy- and folk-flavoured sound.

Four virtuoso musicians fuse Balkan, Russian, Gaelic, and Romantic-inspired music into a whirlwind of skill, humour, and surprises. Infectious, thrilling, and unforgettable, BCO's performances will have you tapping your feet, grinning from ear to ear, and dreaming of the Danube long after the final note.

Back by popular demand!

Brooks Williams

by Laughing Dog Music

Friday 15th May, 8pm
Tickets: £15

Brooks Williams is a master of acoustic guitar, effortlessly blending folk, blues, and country with soulful vocals and expert songwriting. Born in Georgia and now based in Cambridge, UK, he's been a leading light on the acoustic scene for three decades, sharing stages with legends like Taj Mahal and Leo Kottke.

A rare virtuoso whose performances leave audiences asking, "How on earth does he do it?"

Haunted Shadows: The Gothic Tales of Edith Nesbit

by A Monkey With Cymbals

Wednesday 20th May, 7:30pm

Tickets: £16

Step into the darker side of the beloved author of The Railway Children. In this chilling one-woman show, Claire Louise Amias brings three Gothic tales to life - from vengeful spirits to deadly secrets - under the direction of horror expert Jonathan Rigby.

A dazzling, spine-tingling performance that has earned critical acclaim and the Hamilton Deane Award for Amias.

Pride and Prejudice... but funny!

by Lamphouse Theatre

Friday 22nd May, 7:30pm

Tickets: £15

What do you get if you cross Jane Austen's most famous novel with a bunch of buffoons? Pride and Prejudice... but funny!

From the company that brought Frankenstein (On a Budget) to The Spring in summer 2025, Lamphouse Theatre returns with a ridiculous romp through all the Bennets, Bingleys, bachelors and balls (not that kind) — plus the De Bourghs and Darceys.

Featuring at least one soaking wet shirt and some excellent boiled potatoes, this riotous retelling of Austen's beloved classic is not to be missed.

Royal Opera: Eugene Onegin

Tuesday 5th May, 6pm

Following her acclaimed 2024 company debut in Puccini's Madama Butterfly, soprano Asmik Grigorian returns to the Met as Tatiana, the lovestruck young heroine in this ardent operatic adaptation of Pushkin.

Baritone Igor Golovatenko reprises his portrayal of the urbane Onegin, who realizes his affection for her all too late. The Met's evocative production, directed by Tony Award-winner Deborah Warner, "offers a beautifully detailed reading of ... Tchaikovsky's lyrical romance" (The Telegraph).

Exhibition On Screen: Van Gogh and Japan

Tuesday 30th June,
1:30pm & 7:30pm

Discover how Japan inspired one of the world's greatest artists. Van Gogh & Japan explores the profound influence of Japanese art on Van Gogh's work, from his Parisian years to the south of France, revealing a little-known story of creativity, obsession, and artistic transformation. Travel with the film from France and the Netherlands to Japan, and see how Van Gogh's fascination with Japanese aesthetics shaped the masterpieces we know today. A must-see for art lovers and curious minds alike.

Exhibition On Screen: Frida Kahlo

Tuesday 19th May,
1:30pm & 7:30pm

Discover the woman behind the icon in this definitive 90-minute film, filmed extensively at Kahlo's Blue House and featuring insights from experts who knew and studied her. Explore her art, her letters, and the vibrant life that inspired it, from politics to love. A personal, intimate, and visually stunning journey into the genius, resilience, and passion of Frida Kahlo.

Exhibition On Screen: John Singer Sargent: Fashion and Swagger

Tuesday 28th July,
1:30pm & 7:30pm

Discover the artist who defined an era. This stunning documentary explores the life and work of John Singer Sargent, celebrated for his bold, glamorous portraits and extraordinary ability to capture personality, power and style. Filmed at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston and Tate Britain, the exhibition brings together Sargent's masterpieces alongside the striking fashion of his sitters, revealing how his work continues to influence art, culture and identity today. A fascinating big-screen experience for art and history lovers alike.
